21 Weird Little Niches List

The internet is full of weird little niches.

Despite not having huge demand many have incredible potential to be profitable due to lack of competition.

Most internet marketers prefer to go after lucrative (yet more competitive) markets instead.

Here's a list of 21 weird little niches waiting to be dominated. All show the monthly exact search volume for Google USA.

1. Puppet making (2,400)
2. Bone carving (1,600)
3. Abalone Diving (1,000)
4. Wizard of Oz Collectibles (1,600)

Plan of action:

Pick a niche and build a blog, write content on the main problems the target audience face (look for common questions asked on forums and blogs) and target buyer keywords in your posts.

Due to low competition the site will easily rank in Google for long tail keywords.

Drive traffic from blog commenting, guest posting, forum marketing and social media hubs.

There are blogs, forums and social media groups available for all these niches. Take advantage of the $1 Aweber trial on this link to build an email list and send information and product recommendations to visitors.

Each of these weird little markets has products on Amazon or Clickbank.

There's very little competition from other marketers which means they have fantastic potential to be profitable.

Get involved instantly to experience niche domination success in these weird little niches!
